

NOVEMBER 1965/VOLUME 1, No. 2

THIS MONTH

- 20 City on the Move
By CHARLES A. HORSKY. Can Washington meet the President's demand for a model city?
- 22 Subways Are for People
By ARTHUR COTTON MOORE. Our new subway stations need not look like public toilets.
- 24 Lions—14, Christians—0
By BOB MYERS. Is professional football a game or a Roman-style spectacle?
- 27 River Classic
By MARY PARRISH. A look at architect Avery Faulkner's handsome new home.
- 30 Science in the Suburbs. Part II: The People
By S. DAVID PURSGLOVE. Second of three articles on Washington's booming new R & D industry.
- 32 Six Miles and Forty Fences
By ROBERT PHILLIPS. A Virginian's rough introduction to the rites of Irish foxhunting.
- 34 Washington: Magnificent Capital
By FRED J. MAROON, ERIC SEVAREID, and A. ROBERT SMITH. Excerpts of text and photos from a new book.
- 38 Focus on Beauty
By HELEN MERRYMAN LEGG. This season's artistry in makeup and coiffure.
- 41 Four for Evening
A sampling of formal fashions for men and women.
- 51 Wanted: A Municipal Theater
By BETTY HICKSON. Washington needs a showcase for local talent.

THE DEPARTMENTS

- 4 Publishers' Note
- 7 Power on the Potomac, by HOWARD K. SMITH
- 9 Washington, by ROYCE HANSON
- 13 Capital Comment
- 52 The Performing Arts, by ROBERT PARRIS
- 54 The Visual Arts, by CORNELIA NOLAND
- 56 Stable Talk, by J. TIMBERLAKE GIBSON
- 58 The Resolute Shopper, by JANE MORSE
- 60 Wining and Dining, with the PURSGLOVES
- 62 Where and When

COVER: Fred Maroon's photograph of the capital's impressive monuments to the nation's two greatest leaders, Washington and Lincoln, is from his new book, Washington: Magnificent Capital. Additional photo-

4
P75-00001R000300590013-7

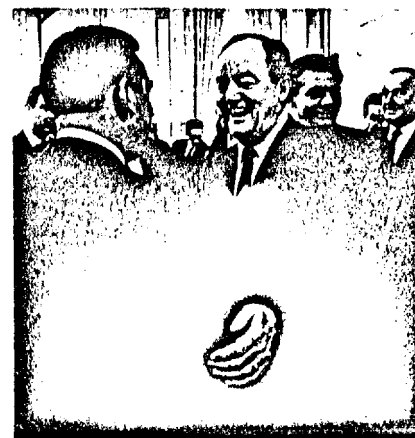

24

30

32

34

CPYRIGHT

CPYRIGHT

CPYRIGHT

CIA-RDP75-00001R000300590013-7